

2017 Shakuhachi Festival of the Pacific

December 15–18, 2017

VENUES

Music Department
University of Hawai'i at Mānoa:
2411 Dole St.
Honolulu, HI

East-West Center:
1601 East-West Rd,
Honolulu, HI

Experience the magical tones of the shakuhachi in the enchanted isles of Hawai'i. This four-day festival will include intensive workshops and lessons in various styles of shakuhachi playing, from traditional, meditation inspired honkyoku solos and sankyoku ensemble pieces, to cutting edge contemporary music. Kinko, Tozan, KSK (Katsuya Yokoyama) and Chikuho Styles will be represented. The festival is for beginners to advanced players, with a special discount and instruments available for absolute beginners. The Masters' Concert (7:00 p.m., Dec. 15th, Orvis Auditorium, University of Hawai'i) will inaugurate the festivities with a performance of outstanding musicians from Japan and around the world. The festival will also feature an academic session presenting the latest in shakuhachi research. Participation Fees include access to all concerts, workshops, private lessons, and academic sessions.

Register by November 1st for a discount of $25 on all the below fees!

Regular: $350, Kama'aina (local): $300,
Absolute Beginner: $175
